

WORK IN THE

USA

Spend the summer on the other side of the Atlantic and get some work experience under your belt at the same time! Take a look at our two favourite stateside programmes.

SUMMER CAMP USA

WHAT IS IT?

Spend 8-10 weeks in a summer camp working as a counsellor with kids aged 6-16. Lead a range of activities, meet like-minded travellers and spend up to 30 days travelling the country after camp ends. Our friends at BUNAC will help you with your visa application, as well as finding you a well-matched camp.

WHO CAN APPLY?

The programme is open to anyone aged 18-30 with a passion for teaching and working with children.

WHEN CAN I BOOK?

Until 30 April 2020. Applications are competitive so apply early. Summer camp contracts begin in June.

WORK AMERICA

WHAT IS IT?

Land in the USA, accommodation and job in-hand, ready for the summer of your life! Whether it's working in a country club in Long Island or a national park in California, discover the real America, share your experience with people from all around the world and be more than just a tourist.

WHO CAN APPLY?

The programme is open to all full-time students, aged 18-30, of any nationality studying at UK universities.

WHEN CAN I BOOK?

For June 2020 departures, book until 31 January 2020. Job applications can be competitive, so we recommend booking early.

Amtrak

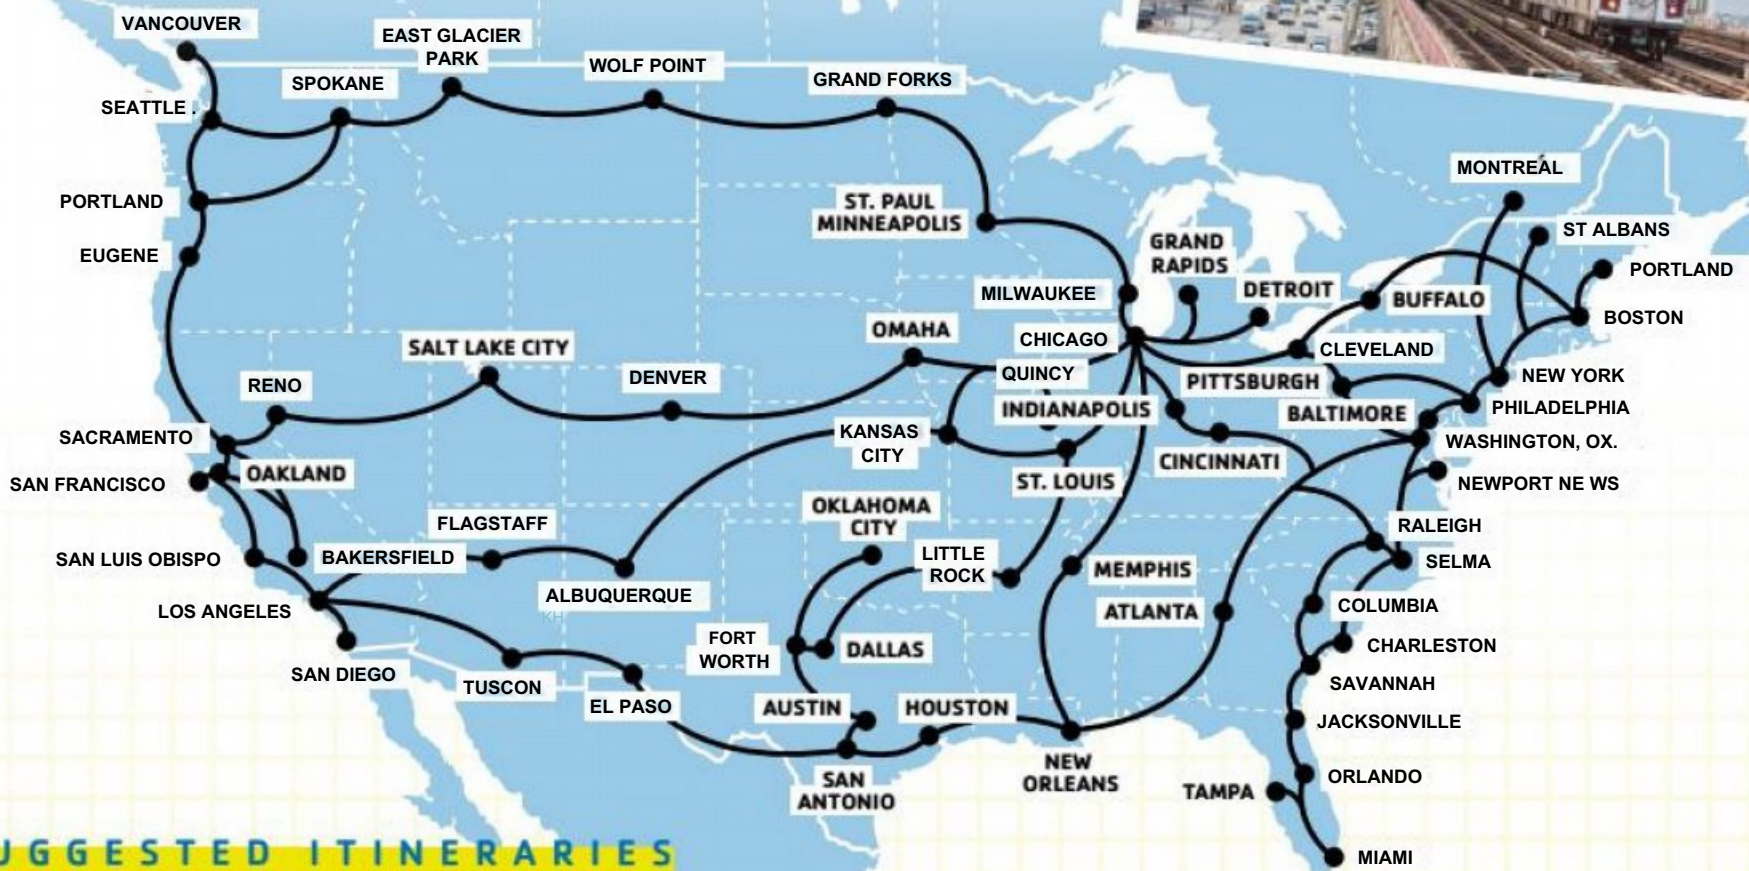

STAYING ON THE TRACKS

Amtrak's expansive rail network serves more than 500 stations across 46 states. And with wide seats, on-board Wi-Fi and your own personal window into America's vast landscapes, getting from A to O is fuss-free and comfy.

Get the ultimate all-American train experience with one of Amtrak's flexible and great value USA rail passes. Choose from 15-day 30-day or 45-day passes to give you 8, 12 or 18 segments of rail travel respectively. With 15 days, you could travel down the Eastern Seaboard from Boston to Miami via New York and Charleston! 30 days can get you from coast to coast [see our suggested itinerary below]; and with 45 days you can snake all over the country stopping at a heap of cool places along the way. What's more, all tickets are electronic, so it's easy to keep track of it all

- ▶ Your first journey must start within 180 days of buying your pass.
- ▶ One 'segment' is used each time you board a train, so a journey from New York to Los Angeles would count as two segments as you need to change trains in Chicago.

Self-drives

CAR HIRE

ON THE ROAD TO EVERYWHERE

Set out on your own road trip along tarmac that stretches right into the sunset, and through some of the world's most epic roadside scenery. Hire a car and do things your own way.

HOW TO ROAD TRIP

It's simple enough. Hire a car, and check out our self-drive itineraries! We offer pre-made itineraries with day-to-day driving instructions, accommodation and tips on what to see along the way. If you can't find one that quite fits, we can work with you to tailor make your own fly drive so you can see North America exactly the way you want.

HIRING A CAR

We offer fully inclusive pre-paid car hire and advise you upfront of any locally payable extras. We work with renowned global suppliers and the best local operators, ensuring you the highest level of service.

THE ICONIC USA ROAD TRIP

As quintessential^ American as baseball, The Bachelor and PB & J sandwiches, Route 66 cuts across the States from east to west. In this case, it goes from Chicago to LA, and passes through Oklahoma, the Grand Canyon and Las Vegas. Self Drive Route 66, page 43

SEE THE NATIONAL PARKS

The western states of Colorado, Arizona and Nevada have this iconic landscape thing down. This road trip starts and ends in Vegas, with an itinerary that hits the big names of the Grand Canyon, Bryce Canyon and Zion, as well as Moab and Mesa Verde. Canyon Adventure, page 87

EXPLORE THE DEEP SOUTH

A brilliant fly drive destination thanks to vibrant cities, small American towns and good old southern hospitality! This route visits the music capitals of Atlanta, New Orleans, Memphis and Nashville, with room for plenty of gumbo and barbecue. Rhythms of the South, page 53

DRIVE HIGHWAY 1

Hands down one of the most beautiful roads in North America, Highway 1 hugs the Pacific Coast and gives way to stunning views of the Big Sur as well as access to some of the state's most picturesque towns. And the surf? Out of this world. Postcards of California, page 86

DRIVING LICENCE

A full valid driver's licence (with photo) is required from your home country. An international licence may also be needed.

AGE RESTRICTIONS

Generally, the minimum age is 21 but this can vary. If you're under 25, you'll normally need to pay an under age driver fee. Please check with your Travel Expert.

ONE-WAY RENTALS

One-way rentals are permitted throughout the USA, subject to availability and must be pre-booked. One-way fees may apply depending on routing, and are usually payable locally.

DAYS 1-2 Los Angeles

You're in the land of celebrities, flawless weather and glamour galore now. Start off in Hollywood to see the Dolby Theatre and the Walk of Fame, and cruise down star-studded Hollywood Boulevard, Rodeo Drive and the Sunset Strip. After that, check out the shops or just relax on the beach in sunny Santa Monica before hitting Venice Beach's boardwalk and soaking up its vibrant energy. You have the next two days Free to explore at leisure. Whatever you do, don't leave LA without eating Mexican street food - ten fish tacos please! (B, D)

DAYS 3-5 Las Vegas

Leave Los Angeles for the bright lights of Las Vegas. And you know what they say - What happens in Vegas... There's only one way to 'do' Sin City, and that's in style! Spend the evening cruising the Strip on an evening illumination tour, then head to the light-and-laser show at downtown's Fremont. Kick the next night off at a rooftop bar in a city notorious for its nightlife. This is not the place to take it easy, just take the bull by the horns and join the party. (B, O)

DAYS 6-9 Miami

Having now conquered Las Vegas it's time to head east to Miami, home to colourful Art Deco buildings, fabulous beaches and Little Havana. Cuban influences are reflected in the cafes and cigar shops that line Calle Ocho - a great place to find yourself Cuban sandwiches and empanadas. Miami is full of good vibes and good weather, and the city has great nightlife, we're talking sexy salsa nights and pumping nightclubs. Experience all this in Miami's South Beach, the best place for pristine beaches, boutiques and buzzing bars. (2B, D)

DAYS 10-13 New York City

Leave the party under the sun and Fly to larger-than-life New York City to sightsee your way round the city's icons, including Wall Street, Museum Row, the World Trade Center Memorial and an included visit to the Statue of Liberty. Immerse yourself in local life with a stroll through the vibrant neighbourhoods of SoHo, TriBeCa and Greenwich Village, take a bike tour around Central Park or follow the Footsteps of "Sex and the City". In the evenings, take in the electric atmosphere of Times Square, catch a Broadway show, feast on pizza slices and soak in nights out in the city that never sleeps. Enjoy two Free days to explore by yourself, you can opt for a visit to the stylish Sth Avenue, followed by an NYC food cart tour and finish up at the 86th Floor of the Empire State Building. (SB, D)

DAYS 1 -3 Los Angeles / Las Vegas / Grand Canyon National Park

Before your tour starts., you'd regret not going after some of the LA glamour. We recommend the Griffith Observatory for a sweeping view of the glittering city. Set out across the Mojave Desert to the bright lights of Las Vegas. An evening tour of the fabulously over-the-top Strip awaits before you visit Fremont Street, home to an epic overhead light-and-laser show. Play the rockstar with a party bus ride before jumping into Vegas' mischievous 24/7 nightlife. Recover and hit the tarmac on the historic Route 66. (2B)

DAYS 4-6 Grand Canyon National Park / Monument Valley / Durango / Albuquerque

Hike along the Canyon's South Rim for panoramic views. Then, it's on to the Wild West landscape of Monument Valley, the backdrop for countless Western films since the 1 930s. Drive over to Albuquerque where New Mexico's largest city boasts a historic Old Town, neon-lit diners and a thriving university district. (2B, D)

DAYS 7-9 Albuquerque / Amarillo / Dallas

Continue to Amarillo and visit the quirky Cadillac Ranch before taking the Amarillo steak challenge, if you have the stomach for it. Experience larger-than-life Texan culture before prepping yourself for Dalias. You'll soon discover why everything is bigger and better in Texas! Well, it is nicknamed the Big O (hey, we didn't come up with it). Opt to visit the John F. Kennedy 6th Floor Museum and the Fort Worth Stockyards to learn more about Texas' history. (3B, 2D)

DAYS 10-13 Memphis / New Orleans

Your journey through the Deep South begins with a pitstop at Little Rock where you learn about the Civil Rights movement. Continue to Memphis and pay homage to the King on a tour of his Graceland mansion. Let the good times roll in New Orleans by taking a sightseeing tour through the French Quarter, Jackson Square and the French Market. The soulful culture of The Big Easy can be absorbed by meandering through the Garden District and feasting on mouth-watering southern cuisine. Learn about how to make the perfect gumbo with a cooking class at New Orleans School of Cooking. New Orleans isn't just about the 'gram, it's about the tasting of pralines and beignets (pronounced ben-yays!) you have along the way. Dancing on Bourbon Street is a must, but Frenchmen Street is where it's really at. (20, D)

DAYS 14-16 Panama City Beach / Orlando

It's off through Alabama to the Sunshine State of Florida. First stop is Panama City Beach, where you can relax and sink into its dreamy beaches and clear waters. Leave the beach behind you and get set For the energy of Florida's entertainment hub, Orlando. Your set of one-way transfers take you to the themeparks for rollercoaster central. It's up to you to opt to thrill seek at Universal Studios at an additional cost. (3B, D)

DAYS 17-18 Miami

Venture south to the hot beach playground of Miami and melt into the sizzling atmosphere of this up-tempo city. Chill out on one of its many beaches, grab a set of roller blades to explore the seafront and get a taste of Cuba in the neighbourhood of Little Havana. [B, D)

DAYS 19-23 St. Augustine / Savannah / Asheville / Richmond

Continue on to the Spanish-influenced town of St. Augustine and visit the Castillo de San Marcos National Monument, a 3DD-year-old Fortress. IF you've been holding back on the food, Asheville is finally the place to let loose on a Food tour as it's home to a rich culinary scene and heaps of breweries. Richmond is one of America's quintessential college towns - all pretty brick row houses, a buzzing street art scene and nitro-fuelled nightlife. Relive your freshman year in one night before heading north to Washington, D.C. (4B, 2D)

DAYS 24-26 Washington, D.C. / Philadelphia

Head north to Washington, D.C. and once you arrive at the presidential HQ, take a tour of the White House, Pentagon and the Washington Monument. There's plenty to do with two free days in D.C., including the Smithsonian Institute's free museums or Arlington National Cemetery to see the changing of the guard. Next, stop in the historic city of Philadelphia - the birthplace of the nation - on your way to New York City. Check out Independence Hall and Liberty Bell and tuck into a Philly cheesesteak sandwich. Channel Rocky Balboa on the steps of the Philadelphia Museum of Art, throw some air punches and just do your thang before leaving edgy Philly. The trip ends on arrival into New York. (2B)

AUSTIN

Help Keep Austin Weird. This boho gem of a city has managed to keep its 5 mall-town charm.

DURANGO

A real adventurous soul. Stay overnight and opt for rafting or horseback riding.

MONUMENT VALLEY

These sprawling beauts are undeniably (and literally) buttes. Feel like a cowboy in the Wild West

From the Big Apple all the way to the Wild West, you'll be in for the road trip of your life. Feast on good ol' southern barbecue, get your honky tonk on in Texas, jingle to jazz in the Big Easy and cruise the famous Route 66.

DAYS 1-2 New York / Philadelphia / D.C.

Peace out of the Big Apple as New York is your launch pad to Philadelphia - birthplace of It's Always Sunny in Philadelphia and Will Smith. There's ample time to grab a Philly cheesesteak and check out sights like the Liberty Bell or some truly impressive street art. On arrival in Washington, D.C., a driving tour cruises by all the major landmarks. If politics aren't your thing, there are more than 17 free Smithsonian Museums dotted around. (2B)

DAYS 3-4 Asheville

Welcome to tasty Asheville, where you hit the pavement on a sculptural urban walking trail designed to honour the communities that moulded Asheville into the gorgeous city it is today. You've got a Free day on Day 4 to experience Asheville's famous musical and culinary scenes. We recommend hitting up the Industrial District to discover why Asheville's affectionately re Ferre d to as Beer Town. With 30 craft breweries and even beer-flavoured doughnuts, it's the best place to kickstart a great night. (2B)

DAYS 5-8 Nashville / Memphis

Nashville., Tennessee is the home of country tunes, red-hot chicken wings and rowdy line dancing. Embrace the country spirit by checking out the RCA Studios or the Johnny Cash Museum. Better yet, meander over to the Grand Ole Opry, which is where country music was first made Famous. Now shift from country moves to Memphis blues as you kick things off with a tour of the city. You'll pass famous sites like the National Civil Rights Museum, the Rock n Soul Museum and Mud Island. With another Free day, Fans of Elvis Presley should consider a trip to Grace land where the King lived in his mansion. (2 B)

DAYS 9-11 New Orleans

After a soulful wander around the quaint, colourful streets of New Orleans, delve deeper into the Big Easy. We urge you start your morning with a beignet pastry From Cafe du Monde beFore adventuring on to art, WWII Museums, ghost walks and flea markets. Finish ofF the day with an evening of unbeatable jazz and slick New Orleans cocktails. (2B)

DAYS 12-15 Austin / Fort Worth / Amarillo

Head to an alligator rescue centre and learn about the work they're doing to reintroduce those gorgeous creatures back into the wild. Then return to city life with Austins bohemian vibe and gawp at the Moonlight Towers, the Capitol Building and the University of Texas. Not cowboy enough for you? Fiercely proud of its cowboy roots. Fort Worth was the centre of Texas' cattle industry and there's no better way to take in its cowboy heritage than discovering rodeos, horse-and-cart rides, a longhorn drive and a whole host of BBQ joints. (4 B)

DAYS 16-19 Santa Fe / Durango / Monument Valley / Williams / Grand Canyon

After a long drive, Santa Fe shows ofF its Pueblo Adobe architecture and tells tales of a time when the native Navajo Americans peacefully co-existed with the Spanish settlers. In Durango, known for its adventurous spirit, thrill-seekers will find themselves white water rafting down the Lower Animas River or chartering a horseback ride across the nearby mountains. Next up, dig into the Wild West vibe at Monument Valley. It was western director John Ford who first turned these buttes into beauts on the silver screen, but you might know them From a host of Films as well. Next, leave your basecamp in Williams and venture to somewhere truly special - the Grand Canyon. One of the world's seven natural wonders, it really is as epic as you think. (4 B)

DAYS 20-22 Las Vegas / Los Angeles

Last stop calls as Las Vegas aka Sin City. This is the gambling capital of the world and it's sure to make you recall dozens of scenes from 'The Hangover trilogy. While you won't quite be hitting the Strip as hard as they did., still SEe world-famous casinos like the MGM Grand, Caesar's Palace and Mandalay Bay. For something more out there, wed recommend the Mob Museum where you can learn all about Vegas' gritty underbelly and mafia past. After a drive through the Mojave desert, depart in LA for your own adventure. (3B)

HIGHLIGHTS

GLAMPING IN ZION NATIONAL PARK

Bed down in safari-style tents in Zion National Park. The stars are Fab in the middle of the desert.

HARVARD WALKING TOUR

This beautiful campus is made all the more lovely by the Fact you don't have to study or go to class.

NIAGARA FALLS CRUISE

Get utterly drenched and love it while sailing below the raw power of these horseshoe Falls.

Iconic landscapes are practically North America's 'thing'. National parks, canyons and cities sprawl across vast spaces, making for spectacular sights. Make your way from east to west, past iconic waterfalls, neon-clad cities and dramatic rock faces.

DAYS 1-2 New York City / Boston

After a spot of pre-trip shopping in New York City meet up with your group and head on up to Boston (aka Ba aw-s tin) and check out Boston Common., Quincy Marketplace and Faneuil Hall. Opt to visit Harvard University and enjoy the pretty grounds without the stress of having to dash to class. (B, D)

DAYS 3-4 Québec City

Cross into the land of maple syrup [aka Canada] and start in Québec City, a small slice of old-world France in the middle of 'North America. Jump into the joie de vivre of the city as you take a guided walking tour of Old Québec. Cartier Avenues giant lampshades are a funky sight to spice things up, then get your fill of pear wine tasters in the farmers markets. Worried about your French? Have no fear as shopkeepers here greet you with the of 'bonjour-hi', meaning you can low key select English or French by responding with either 'bonjour' or 'hi'. [2B, D]

DAYS 5-6 Montréal

It's time For French city nombre deux! You'll love Montréal's mix of European charm and North American pizzazz. Spend two days sussing out the Old Town, the Vieux Port and Mt. Royal - Montréal's largest city park and its highest point. You can't leave without trying some poutine - the French chip-cheese-gravy combo is the Canadian national dish, after all. (2B)

DAYS 7-10 Toronto / Niagara Falls / Cleveland

Canada's largest city, Toronto, is widely known as the most multicultural city in the world. Why not catch a baseball game or zoom to the top of the world's tallest free-standing structure, the CN Tower? The mighty Niagara Falls are calling^ cascading on the Canadian/ US border. A boat cruise takes you right to the base of the Falls, but pssst... Insider tipi The views are better from the Canadian side. Next, make a musical pilgrimage to Cleveland's Rock n' Roll Hall of Fame and spend the afternoon wandering around the lakeside city. (3B, D)

DAYS 11-12 Chicago

Bustling Chicago implores you to check out Lake Michigan and Navy Pier. The city's big on sports too, so make sure you visit Soldier Field, home to the Chicago Bears, or swing by Wrigley Field, home to the Chicago Cubs. You may just encounter a real life sports fan too! Discover the Windy City for yourself with ample free time. (B, D)

DAYS 13-15 Madison / Mt. Rushmore

Driving through America's beautiful heartland, stop in Milwaukee for a tour of a brewery. The Wisconsin state capital of Madison is a hip place to savour the university town's diverse nightlife before catching the pulse of the true American Midwest in Sioux Falls. [3 B, 0]

DAYS 16-18 Mt. Rushmore / Cody

Say hello to Washington, Jefferson, Roosevelt and Lincoln at the presidential Mt. Rushmore. You think that's a monument? Just wait until you see the world's largest mountain carving, the Crazy Horse Memorial, honouring the legendary Lakota Sioux warrior. It's still under construction, but you get to witness history in the making. Yellowstone is next up. It's the nation's first national park and home to the Old Faithful geyser as well as wildlife such as buffalo, elk and bears - Oh my! (36, D)

DAYS 19-20 Teton Valley / Salt Lake City

Another day, another mind-blowing national park. The towering spires of the Teton Range come bearing promises of trail rides and a cook-out. If you're feeling adventurous, opt for some white water rafting before you drive through Idaho on your way to Salt Lake City. Utah's capital is famous for Temple Square and the Mormon Tabernacle Choir. (B)

DAYS 21-22 Zion National Park

Welcome to Zion, where nature begs you to hike among the richly coloured rock formations and hoodoos of Bryce Canyon National Park. See soaring cliffs and sculptured canyons, as well as the gigantic red and white stone formations of West Temple and Watchman. That panoramic setting on your camera was made For this landscape, so go capture that perfect shot. (28, L, D)

DAYS 23-24 Las Vegas / Los Angeles

On arrival in Las Vegas take an evening tour of the Strip - it feels like a million miles away from where you woke up this morning! It's all glitz now as you hit up Sin City's party hotspots. Experience some of the world's largest hotels and casinos, and party Til dawn with non-stop nightlife. End here or continue on to LA (2B, D)

C Adventures

DAYS 1-7 New York / Niagara Falls / Detroit / Chicago / Louisville

Leap onto your comfy bus in NEW York as it whisks you away to Niagara Falls. The Maid! of the Mist tour takes you under the raw power of the falls, so don a blue poncho and keep an eye out for a rainbow. Swing on down to Detroit and pay a visit to the Heidelberg Project, where neighbourhoods are decked out in funky public art installations. IF you're hungry, deep dish pizza is around every corner in Chicago after a walking tour shows you the local landmarks. Nothing is more Midwest than bourbon and barbecue, so get your fill in Louisville. (68, 3 L, 2D)

DAYS 8-14 Nashville / Memphis / New Orleans / Panama City Beach

'Are you From Tennessee? Because you're the only ten I see.' Whip out that cheesy pickup line as you head to Nashville. The state capital is ripe for spotting celebrity country music stars and a good night out, but also hit up Centennial Park and see the Parthenon that's replicated to be exactly like the original in Athens. You've got more free time in Memphis to walk the streets where Elvis, Johnny Cash and B.B. King roamed. After munching on beignets in the French Quarter of New Orleans, head to the sandy white coast of Panama Beach. (7B, 4L, 2D)

DAYS 15-21 Orlando / LA / San Diego / Lake Havasu / Grand Canyon / Monument Valley

Choose between Mickey Mouse or the Minions (Disney World or Universal Studios) in Orlando. After your flight to LA, there's plenty to fill an evening from Santa Monica Pier to Hollywood Blvd. Get more sun in San Diego where watersports await at Mission Beach. Things get a little dusty on a desert hike through Joshua Tree National Park, but cool off in Lake Havasu. Watch the sun set over the Grand Canyon then opt to explore a hiking trail or two on Day 19. Just outside the park, stop for breakfast at a local Navajo food truck supported by G For Good, then set out to Monument Valley. With your tank full, drive through Monument Valley and hike around Horseshoe Bend. (SB, 4L, 3D)

DAYS 22-29 Las Vegas / Sierra Nevadas / Yosemite / San Francisco / Morro Bay

Vegas, baby! Hydrate on the Strip and then head into a land of extremes the next morning in Death Valley, the hottest and driest spot on earth and home to the lowest point in North America. Soak up the nature in the Sierra Nevadas as an appetiser to the main course that is Yosemite. Check out Mono Lake and opt to hike up the iconic Half Dome. Roll into San Francisco just like the fog over the Golden Gate Bridge, then Santa Cruz by the dramatic landscape of Big Sur and meet an elephant seal colony. Finish in LA where your trip ends on arrival. (4B, 4L, 4D)

EPIC AMERICAN ADVENTURES

HIGHLIGHTS

MT. RAINIER

Even in summer, be sure to dress warmly! This mountain is freaking cool in both senses of the word. ...

BIG SUR

Travel down one of the States' most beautiful coasts, flanked by mountains and crashing waves.

CHARLESTON

Let good old fashion hospitality welcome you as the Victorian architecture vies to win your heart.

Step off the path most travelled as you plunge into the green, misty forests of the Pacific Northwest and the antebellum (pre-Civil War) towns of the South that played crucial roles in US history and still boast their romantic Victorian charm.

DAYS 1-4 Seattle / Mt. Rainier / Portland

Seattle's Space Needle fades into the distance as you head south for snow-capped Mt. Rainier. With an elevation of 4,392 metres, it's the highest mountain in the Cascade Range and one of the most dangerous volcanoes in the world! No bother though, eat a picnic surrounded by tranquil nature. Walk off that food baby with a hike through the park where black bears, mountain lions, bobcats and mountain goats are known to roam. Portland embraces you in its notoriously off-beat arms. You've got two days here to do what you like, but it'd be a crime if you missed a visit to Powell's Book, one of the USA's largest bookstores, or a cold pint of era Ft beer during happy hour. (3B, L, D)

DAYS 5-8 Redwood National Park / San Francisco

One of the most pristine lakes in the world is none other than Crater Lake. Gaze into the deep blue water before walking among the tallest trees in the world in Redwood National Park. Fun fact: the location of the tallest tree on Earth is kept secret to prevent vandalism. Maybe you'll walk by it in the old-growth forest and not even know! Drive over the Golden Gate Bridge - stopping for pictures, of course - and get set loose on San Francisco. In your two days of free time, opt to explore by sail boat or by bike. Watch out for those killer hills though. (4B, 3L, 2D)

DAYS 9-11 Lake Tahoe / Yosemite National Park

The clear waters of Lake Tahoe are the second deepest in the USA, and they invite you to hike around the shores. In the evening, Flirt with lady luck in Nevada's casinos on the east side of the lake. Spend two days in Yosemite, the majestic park tucked away in California's Sierra Nevada mountains. Whether you've never stepped foot on a trail before or are itching to clamber up the daring Half Dome, there is a hike out there for everyone. (3B, 2L, 2D)

DAYS 12-13 Santa Cruz / Morro Bay

Glide past the palm-fringed streets of Santa Cruz. There's plenty to take in for an afternoon such as exploring the wharf, vintage rides, shops and the beach. En route to Morro Bay for the sunset, you have the privilege to drive down Big Sur. (2B, L, 2D)

DAYS 14-15 LA / Orlando / Savannah

Be on the look out for celebrities and landmarks in Los Angeles as you cruise on toward LAX for your flight all the way across the country to Orlando. There's no time to waste as you're whisked away to St. Augustine, the oldest city in America. Opt for a walk around the historic riverfront of Savannah, soaking in the architecture and Spanish moss. (2B, L)

DAYS 17-20 Charleston / Richmond / Washington, D.C.

It's all about the history now as you breeze through three heavy hitters on the East Coast that each had a huge part to play in the formation of the America that we know today. First up is Charleston, where the first shots of the Civil War rang out over Fort Sumter in Charleston Harbor. Next is Richmond, the capital of Virginia and home to the famous quote, 'Give me liberty or give me death.' As you can probably guess, Richmond was a big player in the Civil War as well. Finish off with the crème de la crème of Washington, D.C., where you have plenty of time to explore Georgetown, 1600 Pennsylvania Ave, the Capitol Building and the Smithsonian Museums. In the evening, take a tour of the monuments by moonlight. (4B, 2L, 2D)

DAY 21 New York City

Oh no! It's the last day! How did we get here so fast? While you're on the way to New York City, stop off in Philadelphia en route. Check out the Liberty Bell and chow down on a Philly cheesesteak. Once in New York, your trip ends on arrival. But it doesn't have to be the end yet! Why not opt to visit Times Square or stroll Central Park? You're already here anyway! (BJ)

HIGHLIGHTS

THE GRAND CANYON

A hike along the rim will give you a due as to the impressive depths of this natural wonder.

BEALE STREET

Bursting neon lights beckon you into clubs pouring with live music. This is the birthplace of blues, baby.

GRACELAND TOUR

Pay homage to the late King of Rock and Roll, Elvis Presley, on a tour his former home.

DAYS 1-4 Los Angeles / Las Vegas / Grand Canyon

Kicking it all off with high spirits in the City of Angels, take the scenic route through the sands of the Mojave Desert. Pass the famous Joshua trees on your way to the glitz and glamour of Las Vegas. Try your luck in the city's casinos, opt to see the acrobatics of the Cirque du Soleil show or let loose on the Strip for a little Vegas-style bonding. Swap your dancing shoes for hiking boots as you make for the mighty Grand Canyon, one of the world's most famous natural wonders. (2B, D)

DAYS 5-7 Monument Valley / Durango / Albuquerque / Amarillo

Travel past the Wild, Wild West landscapes of Monument Valley on your way to Durango, Colorado's adventure capital. The next day is all about adrenalin, so grab your adventure shoes and hop to it. Opt to go white water rafting, take a snowmobile out on the slopes or go horseback riding through the mountains (all seasonal). Santa Fe calls on Day 7, a city rich with Native American and Hispanic influences. Don't overeat though - tonight's antics may see you tackle one of Amarillo's famous steak challenges. (3B, 2D)

DAYS 8-11 Dallas / Memphis

Here in Texas, you'll soon learn that the slogan "bigger is better" is quite simply, a way of life. Head to the Big D (aka Dallas), famous for its cowboys, cheerleaders and the Dallas TV series. History buffs should explore the city's famous museums and memorials to President John F. Kennedy's assassination. Overnight in the cowboy town of Fort Worth and get fully immersed into the land of leather boots and Cadillacs. Sports fan? Pay a visit to Dallas Stadium on a Cowboys Tour. Swing past Little Rock on Day 11 and make for the musical mecca of Memphis. Pay homage to 'The King' (Elvis, in case you're wondering) in Graceland and then see the hotel where Martin Luther King Jr. was assassinated. After you're done exploring, hit the blues clubs and restaurants of Beale Street. (2B, 2D)

DAYS 12-13 New Orleans

Bellies full of barbecue ribs and steaks, head south to the bayou and explore the romantic metropolis of New Orleans. It's a melting pot of French and Caribbean infusions, so kick off the festivities in Jackson Square before sampling beignets and marvelling at mansions. It'll all be to the sound of Southern Jazz (but of course). Bid farewell to the city and pack some beignets for the road on Day 13 as your tour ends. (2B)

NEW YORK AREA - LOS ANGELES

HIGHLIGHTS

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Politics aside, this place has a wealth of ridiculously cool museums. That's right. We said museums are cool.

MONUMENT VALLEY

You think these buttes are good? Just wait until you hang around for sunset, then we'll talk.

ZION NATIONAL PARK

The more daring hikes are guided by steep lines of chains, but Fab views can be captured without a climb.

DAYS 1-3 New York Area / Philadelphia / Washington, D.C. / Appalachian Mountains

Jump into action as you go from the New York area to Philadelphia. This Always Sunny city is home to Liberty Bell and the Famous 'Rocky' steps. Throw some punches into the air before moving on to Washington, D.C. See the Capitol via bike tour as you scoot around iconic sites such as the Lincoln Memorial and Washington Monument. Follow up with a cruise through Virginia's old-world history, then stretch your legs in the Appalachian Mountains.

DAYS 4-8 Ocoee River / Nashville / Memphis / New Orleans

Rafting could be on the cards, so grab a paddle for an exhilarating taste of the Deep South before continuing to a double dose of world-class music in Nashville and Memphis. Opt to worship The King at Graceland, the former home of Elvis Presley. On Day 7, it's on to Louisiana's Big Easy. Mardi Gras World's exuberant carnival floats are on display here or explore myths and mysteries on an optional graveyard tour, featuring tales from voodoo traditions.

DAYS 9-14 Austin / Amarillo / Santa Fe / Monument Valley

Make for Austin, Texas' tasty capital city. Were talking ice cream, barbecue and tacos before a dose of dancing Southern-style. Still hungry? Make for Amarillo, where Tex-Mex is definitely calling. It's time for artsy Santa Fe to work its charm on you on Day 13 before the trip takes you to the sacred Navajo land of Monument Valley.

DAYS 15-18 Grand Canyon National Park / Zion National Park

Welcome to the big GC. Hike along its rim or watch the sinking sun alter the colours of the canyon. If you've got energy to burn, hike down inside the canyon to Plateau Point for views of the Colorado River. Day 17 brings more breathtaking views with a stop at Horseshoe Bend before going to Zion National Park. Stroll through the park's sandstone canyons and get 360-degree views with a trek to Angel's Landing - it's what the panoramic camera mode was made for.

DAYS 19-21 Las Vegas / Los Angeles

Vegas, baby! Leaving the wonders of Mother Nature behind, embrace the flashing lights of this brash city. Live like a celeb and cruise down the Strip in an included stretch limo. An all-you-can-eat buffet invites you to chow down before riding a rollercoaster and exploring the extravagant casino hotels. Finish up in Los Angeles with the Hollywood Walk of Fame before getting last-minute tan time in on an included trip to Venice Beach.

NEW YORK

Your tour begins and ends in this dynamic city, so wolf down a bagel and get exploring?

NIAGARA FALLS

The world's most famous waterfall puts on quite a show. Feel the spray on a Maid of the Mist boat tour.

TORONTO

Welcome to Canada's largest city, dotted with soaring skyscrapers and a multicultural population.

DAYS 1-5 New York City / Philadelphia / Washington, D.C. / Allegheny National Forest / Niagara Falls

Touch down singing New York, New York, and squeeze in some time to explore the Big Apple before meeting with your group. The following day, head south to Philadelphia to visit Independence Hall, where America's first leaders drafted both the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution. Continue on to political powerhouse and capital city Washington, D.C. With a full day here, uncover all the famous sights including the White House and Lincoln Memorial. Take a nature break as you dive into the lush Allegheny National Forest and continue to the thundering Niagara Falls. On a Maid of the Mist boat tour, feel the spray up close and by night, witness the falls illuminate. (4B, 2L, 3D)

DAYS 6-10 Toronto / Ottawa / Montréal

Mmm yes, breathe in that poutine ladies and gents, you'll soon be making a border-crossing into Canada! Well, aside from this cheesy French fries dish, there'll be pancakes topped with maple syrup and streaky bacon waiting for you, too. So with the Canadian expedition kicking off in Toronto, begin your foodie frenzy by hopping between all the thriving restaurants and shops, and the buzzing Kensington Market. If time permits, take up some sightseeing with a visit to the Hockey Hall of Fame and the iconic CN Tower. On Day 8, pass through Algonquin Provincial Park's lush maple and fire woods and sparkling lakes on your way to Ottawa, the nation's capital. Enjoy free time to pick up some goodies at Byward Market, visit the parliament buildings, wander around the historic Glebe neighbourhood or treat yourself to a cheeky Beaver Tail or two (nope, it's not what you think it is). On Day 9, continue to Montreal, the biggest French-speaking metropolis in the world after Paris. Opt to go cycling, jet boating, climb Mt. Royal or thrill yourself at La Ronde theme park. Montréal is also famous for its nightlife, so better bust out your best moves! (5B, 1L, 2D)

DAYS 11-14 Boston / Cape Cod / New York City

Crossing back into the States, spoil your sweet tooth with a tour of Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream Factory. Then in Boston, stroll to Faneuil Hall and the Freedom Trail on a guided city tour. Meander among the students of Harvard University before heading out to beautiful Cape Cod on Day 12. Here, you'll set up camp and enjoy a sunset on the beach, taking the next day to relax on the sandy shores or go for a spot of whale watching. Track back to New York on Day 14, which is where your tour ends. Hang around if you want to lap up more of NYC's big city vibes. (3B, 1L, 2D)

DAYS 1-7 New York / Boston / Portland / The Forks / Quebec City / Montreal

From the Big Apple to New Haven, Connecticut, your American adventure kicks off in style. In the afternoon of Day 1, reach Boston and get a load of the Irish pubs. Boston is a seafoods dream, so why not try some of the famous clam chowder or lobster tail if you're feeling alii fancy? Enjoy your Free day, then head for America's 'foodies t* small town, Portland, followed by a trip to the Forks on Day 3. Get out in nature, discover the hiking trails and bed down in a cosy cabin in this riverside region. Quebec calls on Day 5, with a stop at Attean Outlook en route. Arrive around lunchtime and begin by exploring the UNESCO-listed Old Town. Then, on Day 6, make for the French-infused city of Montreal and its riveting arts and culture scene. [S'I

DAYS 8-11 Ottawa / Toronto / Niagara Falls / Buffalo / New York

Make a pitstop at Canadian capital Ottawa For a Beaver Tail pastry Dr a gander at the Gothic architecture of Parliament Hill. Later on Day 8, reach bustling Toronto. This city is Canada's largest and bursts with urban-chic flavour, offering art. Food, beaches and nightlife aplenty. Sail to Toronto Islands for a skyline snap and leave on Day 10 for the thundering Niagara Falls. An optional Maid of the Mist Tour takes you past the powerful spray produced by 600,000 gallons of crashing water - one of the best ways to experience this natural wonder! HIGHLIGHTS

NEW ORLEANS

Bobble on a gumbo and hit the jazz clubs by night, just don't rub the voodoo spirits the wrong way_.

ASHEVILLE FOOD TOUR

Taste a bit of that southern charm with a foodie tour of culinary master Asheville.

WASHINGTON D.C.

The capitol is calling with a plethora of iconic monuments and political history to uncover.

DAYS 1-3 New Orleans / Panama City Beach / Orlando

Your trip starts in the morning as you take in the warm and soulful culture of the Big Easy. Meander through the French Quarter, listen to some jazz, feast on Southern cuisine and discover what voodoo is all about. Then as evening comes, hit the bars and jazz clubs of Bourbon Street. The vibrant, carnival-esque vibe of this wild area is best enjoyed alongside a punchy whisky on the rocks. Make it a double. Take the next day to travel through Sweet Home Alabama on your way to the white sandy shores of Panama City Beach. Kick back in the warm sun and then, on Day 3, get set for Orlando, residence of the House of Mouse. (2B)

DAYS 4-10 Orlando / Miami / St. Augustine / Savannah / Asheville

Oidando is home to more than a dozen theme parks, so ready yourself for two days of non-stop fun-chasing! Take advantage of your free one-way transfers to explore Universal Studios, Universal's Islands of Adventure, MGM Studios, Epcot and Animal Kingdom. Once you're all theme-parked out, make for the glamorous charms of Miami. Sunbathe along the beautiful beaches, max out your credit card or look out for A-list celebrities in South Beach's hottest clubs. If you feel the need for speed, a Thriller' speedboat ride around the harbour should do the trick. Day 7 brings a change of pace as you travel north to the beaches and quiet allure of one of America's oldest inhabited cities, St. Augustine. This city's a real romantic, which you'll soon see as you set off along the cobblestones towards the Spanish Quarter. Next up, it's time for some southern hospitality in Savannah, where horse-drawn carriages clip clop past oak trees and tropical plants. Hop between historic city squares, homes and gardens made famous by 'Forrest Gump', then cross state lines into North Carolina, and the foodie hub of Asheville. Explore the city's vibrant art scene and enjoy a foodie tour of the local culinary scene and breweries. (SB, 2D)

DAYS 11-14 Richmond / Washington, D.C. / Philadelphia / New York City

Leave the mountains behind and head to Richmond, a city steeped in American history and one of the USA's quintessential college towns. It's a short drive to Washington, D.C. the next day, so there's plenty of time to explore the place in daylight and at night, when they turn on the lights and illuminations. There's also oodles of galleries and boutiques to nose about before you make your final approach to New York City. A mandatory cheesesteak sandwich stop in Philadelphia breaks up the journey before the high-rises of NYC come into view and your tour ends. (4B, D)

"Kick things off with a trip to Austin and a smokin' hot Tex-Mex BBQ on your first night."

MEMPHIS

"Music lovers unite; it's time to visit the very home of blues and birthplace of rock 'n' roll."

GLAMPING

"Spend two nights glamping in the gorgeous setting of the Great Smoky Mountains."

DAYS 1-3 Dallas / Austin / San Antonio

Experience Southern hospitality at its best as you make your way from the cowboys and cheerleaders of the Big D to the laid-back vibes of Austin. Get to know your fellow travellers over an authentic Texan barbecue on your first night. Day 2 is yours to explore at your own pace. See the sights by bike and boogie to beats in the live music capital of the world. Then, it's time to move on to San Antonio; a melting pot of Spanish, American and Mexican influences. Eat your way around the largest Mexican market outside of Mexico, visit the Alamo and take a scenic walk along the river. (3B, D)

DAYS 4-7 Houston / New Orleans

By now you'll already be feeling like a local, so continue the Texan theme with a trip to the stated biggest city. With oversized belt buckles, big steaks and portion sizes to match, the city certainly lives up to its name. Take to the museums and shops during the day, then hit the honky tonks by night. Bellies full of barbecue, head to the romantic metropolis of New Orleans, a melting pot of French and Caribbean infusions. Kick off the festivities in Jackson Square, gorge on some beignets (French doughnuts) and sink a whisky cocktail on world-famous Bourbon Street. (4B, D)

DAYS 8-12 Memphis / Nashville

Bidding farewell to the Big Easy, head north to the musical mecca of Memphis. Pay homage to Elvis, the King of Rock 'n' Roll, in Graceland and see where Martin Luther King Jr. was assassinated. Other music loving hotspots include the Rock & Soul Museum, Blues Hall of Fame and Stax Museum of American Soul Music. During the evenings, we'd recommend heading to Beale Street, famous for its bars and blues clubs. Then on Day 9, pull those boots out one more time as you make for Nashville. With the smell of Southern delicacies in the air, the city is yours to explore. You can also opt to have dinner at Woolworth on 5th, the site of the first African American sit-in diner during segregation. (3B, 2D)

DAYS 13-15 The Great Smoky Mountains / Atlanta

Whisky fans will be delighted with next point of call the Jack Daniels distillery, with a guided tour and a taster included. From here, you'll be making for the blue haze of the Smoky Mountains. Two nights in this mountain paradise will feed your adventurous side, bringing outdoor activities such as ziplining and horse riding to the table. Melt some s'mores over a crackling campfire then head to Atlanta where your tour ends on Day 15. (2B, 2D)

WHEN YOU HAVE

24 HOURS

If you only have a day in the Big Apple (which no self respecting New Yorker calls it, fyi] you might want to concentrate on the core - sorry - sights. That has to include Central Park, a stroll down Broadway, Grand Central Station (the food hall downstairs is a great lunch spot] and maybe a visit to the Metropolitan Museum, Times Square or the Empire State Building. At night, head to the East Village for dinner.

48 HOURS

The first thing you have is more time for brunch, which means a mandatory trip to Zabar's, a Jewish delicatessen on Broadway and 80th St. There's also the New York Public Library's gorgeous Rose Reading Room, the sombre and renowned 9/11 Memorial & Museum - which you'll need to set aside at least a couple of hours for - as well as helicopter flights that can take you all over the city.

72 HOURS

This is when you'll be able to afford some bigger excursions, maybe a trip to the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island or half-day foodie tour of Brooklyn. We'd also suggest a walk along the High Line, coffee in the Flatiron district and bagels in Lower Manhattan's Black Seed.

IN NEW YORK

Get the full city experience with The New York Pass. Choose between one, two, three, five or seven days, and visit over 100 attractions including the Empire State Building, Top of the Rock Observatory, Hop-On Hop-Off Sightseeing and the 9/11 Memorial & Museum. LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

LOS ANGELES

LA may be home to billionaires and dreamers, but the City of Angels is surprisingly down to earth.

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK

A nature lover's paradise brimming with giant sequoias, imposing granite formations and waterfalls.

SAN FRANCISCO

Artists, musicians and freethinkers flock to this character-filled city in their masses.

Skyscrapers, sequoias and impossibly big skies await you in America's West. This 15-day adventure is perfect for those who want to inject a little downtown energy into their out-of-town escapes!

DAYS 1-3 Los Angeles / San Diego / Joshua Tree N.P. / Lake Havasu

Touch down in Tinseltown at any time on Day 1 and hit the boutiques of Melrose Avenue or grab a pair of roller skates and head for the Santa Monica Pier. Meet the rest of your group tonight, and start the journey down the Pacific Coast the next morning. Spot celebs as you pass through glamorous LA, then travel through Orange County to San Diego. With diverse neighbourhoods, world-famous attractions, over 60 beaches and more than 200 craft breweries and tasting rooms, it's no wonder this seaside stunner is nicknamed America's 'Finest City'. Work on your tan on Mission Beach, then head to the Gaslamp Quarter for dinner and live music. On Day 3, set your sights on Joshua Tree National Park. Take in the cactus-dotted desert landscape and the region's Joshua trees. You'll have the option to visit the London Bridge shipped from England in the 1800s and then rebuilt in Arizona. End the day with a cooling dip in the Colorado River at Lake Havasu. [B, L, D]

DAYS 4-6 Grand Canyon / Monument Valley

Today, get some kicks on Route 66 - over 2,000 miles of tarmacked history stretching from California to Chicago - before continuing on to 'drum roll please' the big GC. Over the next two nights, take in the vast landscape on one of the many hiking trails, snap that perfect photo from different viewpoints and enjoy fiery sunsets with a side of toasted marshmallows. There's even the opportunity to get a bird's-eye view on an optional helicopter ride. The incredible scenery continues on Day 6 as you drive along the canyon's southern rim and make for Monument Valley, famed for its towering sandstone buttes that rise from the surrounding red-hued desert. Along the way, stop for breakfast at G for Good's Navajo-run Native Grill food truck. (3B, 2L, 2D)

DAYS 7-9 Las Vegas/Sierra Nevada

Start Day 7 with a short hike to Horseshoe Bend before crossing three states (Arizona, Utah and Nevada) into Las Vegas. Non-stop entertainment is lined up for the next two nights - after all, it's Vegas baby! Live the high life with an optional VIP limo experience, try your luck at the casinos or catch a show. Feeling adventurous? Head to the top of the Stratosphere Tower and dangle 264 metres over the Strip on one of the thrill rides. You won't find anything quite like Sin City anywhere else. Probably for the best! Come to think of it. On Day 9, it's on to the driest and lowest point in North America, Death Valley. Pass mountains, badlands, salt flats and dunes as you drive to the Sierra Nevada where you'll overnight (B, L, D)

DAYS 10-13 Yosemite N.P. / San Francisco

After a morning trip to see Mono Lake's fascinating tower of pinnacles, follow the scenic Tioga Pass through the mountains to Yosemite National Park. Here, you can go on a series of hikes to waterfalls, clear lakes, beautiful meadows and giant sequoia groves. Don't forget to look out for daredevil climbers attempting to conquer the near-vertical granite rock faces known as the Half Dome and El Capitan. Day 12 and it's time to lose your heart in San Francisco. Wonderfully diverse, it's home to people from all walks of life. Did you know that the Chinese fortune cookie was actually invented by a Japanese resident of San Fran? How about that for a cultural mish-mash? Another fun fact, the city's cable cars are the only National Historical Monument that can move! Head down to Fisherman's Wharf for some rich and creamy clam chowder, then opt to catch a boat over to the infamous prison island of Alcatraz to see where Al Capone was incarcerated. History buffs may want to attempt to recreate the well-documented escape attempt in 1962 where a prisoner greased himself with lard and swam to the Golden Gate Bridge. No? Fair play. Finish your visit with an optional sunset cruise, complete with amazing views of the harbour city. (3B, 3L, 20)

DAY 14-15 Morro Bay / Los Angeles

Crashing waves, rolling fog and sheer cliffs make the drive down California's Highway 1 quite an experience. Stop in Santa Cruz, famous for its hippie vibes and university bars, and continue along the coastal road to the Big Sur. A feat of engineering, thousands were employed during the Great Depression to build its succession of bridges and hairpin bends along a route that seemed impassable. Overnight in Morro Bay before heading to your final destination of Los Angeles. As you meander the flashy district of Beverly Hills and the oh-so-elite Rodeo Drive, keep your cameras handy for some potential celeb-spotting. Discover why Santa Monica Pier and Venice Beach are two of LA's pin-up icons before deciding whether or not you're going to stick around. LA is famous for swanky night clubs and boasts a great party atmosphere, so why not extend your trip. You could sample some of the delicious sushi rolls California is famous for, stroll along Sunset Boulevard or flex your biceps at Muscle Beach. (B, D)

SPECIAL STAY

Live out your all-American summer camp dreams on the shores of Bass Lake, near Yosemite National Park

GRAND CANYON

Your spirits (and Insta likes) will be at an all time high as you hike the south rim of this natural wonder.

CHINATOWN DINNER

Chow down on chow mein with an included family-style meal in San Francisco's Chinatown.

All the best bits of the West Coast in one nifty (and pretty iconic) itinerary. There's the famous Californian sun, epic drives along the Pacific Coast and, of course, some of North America's most-loved cities.

DAYS 1-3 Los Angeles / San Diego

Kick start your stateside escapade in gritty yet glamorous Los Angeles. Home to the original Disneyland, vibrant neighbourhoods that back onto golden beaches and more iconic landmarks than you can shake a selfie stick at, you won't be stuck for things to see and do here. Check out the Kodak Theatre where the Oscars are held every year, stroll down the star-studded Hollywood Walk of Fame or take a trip to Venice Beach, where performers, tattoo artists, hair braiders, musicians, rollerbladers and bodybuilders gather. The following day, meet your American dream team (aka your Contiki travel crew) and drive through Orange County along the Pacific Coast to San Diego. Day 3 is yours to explore, so why not head to the Gaslamp Quarter, Balboa Park or Old Town San Diego? After all that sightseeing, you'll no doubt have worked up an appetite. Dig into an included Mexican dinner, then hit up the downtown clubs or sip cocktails at a chic rooftop lounge. (2B, 2D)

DAYS 4-6 Phoenix/ Grand Canyon

Now you've had a taste of the laid-back Californian lifestyle, it's time to crank up the heat as you venture into the Sonoran Desert in Arizona. Your base for the next night is Phoenix, a metropolitan desert oasis and the fifth-largest city in the USA. With approximately 300 days of sunshine a year, it's easy to see why it's called the Valley of the Sun. On Day 5, make for one of the world's most impressive natural wonders, the Grand Canyon. Along the way, stop in Sedona, a quirky town nestled in Red Rock Country where you can shop for brightly coloured Native American jewellery. Drive past sandstone cliffs and rugged peaks until you reach your lodge, nestled within the Grand Canyon National Park. To truly appreciate the dramatic scenery, you'll have a Full day to explore this UNESCO World Heritage Site. Hike along the canyon's south rim for some fab views, then end the day with a spine-tingling sunset. There's also the option to view this incredible sight from the best seat in the house - a helicopter. (2B)

DAYS 7-10 Las Vegas / Yellowstone N.P.

The bright lights of Las Vegas beckon on Day 7. To get there, follow Route 66 via the historic town of Seligman for some old-school Americana vibes. On arrival in Vegas, see what the casino-clad city is all about with a nighttime tour of the famous Strip. Cruise through the neon-lit streets and visit Fremont Street for a dazzling light-and-laser show. Two nights of non-stop partying will have you pining for a little tranquillity. Luckily, your next destination is just the ticket. Drive past Joshua trees - the famous symbol of the Mojave Desert - to your comfy chalet on the shores of pine-trimmed Bass Lake. Ease travel-weary limbs in the jacuzzi and breathe in the fresh mountain air. Day 10 and it's time to get back to nature in Yosemite National Park. Hike or bike through the valley, or head for the hills for spectacular views over the park. Keep your eyes peeled for local wildlife, including black bears, coyotes and deer. (3B, D)

DAYS 11-14 San Francisco

Head out of the mountains and into one of America's most colourful and character-filled cities, San Francisco. Catch awesome views as you cross the Oakland Bay and Golden Gate bridges. A foodie favourite famed for its sourdough, fortune cookies and chowder, it would be wrong not to eat and drink yourself silly at just some of the 3,000 cafes, restaurants, bakeries and food trucks. Tuck into an included group dinner in Chinatown, and work it all off by scaling the hilly streets or wandering around Golden Gate Park. Now that you've scratched the surface, dive a little deeper with a free day on Day 13, ticking off Alcatraz Island, Fisherman's Wharf, the Asian Art Museum and the lively Castro District (one of the oldest and largest gay neighbourhoods in the country). Don't miss out on the notorious nightlife. Try Union Square for cocktails, the graffiti-strewn Mission District for dive bars and SoMa for dance clubs. Your trip comes to an end on Day 14, so either bid farewell to your group or choose to continue the love affair with this eclectic city. (B, D)

DAYS 1-6 San Francisco / Yosemite N.P. / Sierra Nevada / Las Vegas

Say hello to San Francisco! Arrive at any time and do a bit of exploring before meeting the rest of your group tonight. As you leave the harbour city on Day 2, stop at the Golden Gate Bridge where, on a clear day, you can see Alcatraz. Sample some of the region's best produce during an included food tasting experience then continue to Yosemite National Park. On Day 4, summer travellers will drive to the mountain town of Bishop across the stunning Tioga Pass and overnight in the Sierra Nevada. If you're here in winter, you'll follow a route to Bakersfield instead. Continue on to Death Valley, one of the country's most rugged and iconic landscapes. Later, find yourself in Las Vegas. Stroll along the famous neon-lit Strip, see a live show or hit the tables and slot machines. Next day, chill poolside or opt to visit the Hoover Dam.

DAYS 7-9 Bryce Canyon N.P. / Lake Powell / Monument Valley

Day 7 takes in two national parks. First up happens to be Utah's oldest, Zion. Next is Bryce Canyon where you'll catch one of the most spectacular sunsets in the Southwest. Explore the park's natural amphitheatres and multicoloured hoodoos (rock pinnacles), then don your best cowboy hat for an optional horse ride (seasonal) at Lake Powell. On Day 9, visit the impressive Glen Canyon Dam before enjoying a Navajo-led 4WD tour of Monument Valley.

DAYS 10-13 Grand Canyon N.P. / Lake Havasu City / San Diego

The Grand Canyon awaits on Day 10. You'll need lots of energy for all the hikes here., so it's a good job you'll stop for a hearty lunch at a G For Good-supported Navajo Food truck en route. Choose to wander along the rim or venture inside the canyon by foot. That evening, watch the colours change from orange to pink to purple as the sun dips behind the plateau. Hit Route 66 on Day 11 and overnight in Lake Havasu City, famed for its bridge that was relocated from England. The next morning, hike through Joshua Tree National Park then head to beachside San Diego. Make the most of your free time here by visiting its namesake zoo, the California Surf Museum and the historic Gaslamp Quarter. (L, D)

DAYS 14-15 Los Angeles

Hey LA! Your final stop is the City of Angels. Check out glamorous Rodeo Drive, celeb spot in Beverly Hills and see the names of the stars on the most famous sidewalk in Hollywood during an orientation tour. Optional bike or rollerblade rental is up for grabs so you can fit in with the locals and explore Muscle Beach or Santa Monica. Once you've had your fill of the laid-back LA lifestyle, depart at any time on Day 15.

GFQR GOOD

Grab breakfast from the Navajo run Native Grill, and support a community-based business.

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK

A volcanic hotspot in Wyoming bubbling with geothermal springs, mud pots and gushing geysers.

REDWOOD NATIONAL PARK

Some of the ancient, moss-covered trees in this Californian park tower up to 379ft tall.

As the world's third-largest country, we reckon it would take several lifetimes to see everything the USA has to offer. Luckily, this expansive tour of the western states - peppered with national parks, neon-lit cities and scenic coastlines - comes pretty close.

DAYS 1-5 Los Angeles / San Diego / Lake Havasu City / Grand Canyon N.P.

Landing in celeb-studded LA, the first leg of this epic (and we mean epic) adventure takes you aEong the Pacific coast to sun-kissed San Diego. Choose to visit Coronado Island, kick back on Mission Beach or meander the Gaslamp Quarter. The next morning, set your sights on Joshua Tree National Park, admiring the desert scenery and Joshua trees as you go before taking a refreshing dip in the waters of the Colorado River. Day 4 and its time to experience the sheer scale of the Grand Canyon. Hike one of the parks many trails, then watch the rugged cliffs change from a burnished orange colour to rusty red as the sun sets. Take in its raw beauty from the rim or view it from the sky with an optional helicopter ride. (4B, 2L, 3D)

DAYS 6-11 Monument Valley / Las Vegas / Zion N.P. / Bryce Canyon N.P. / Moab

Start Day 6 with breakfast at a G for Good Navajo food truck, then continue to red-earthed Monument Valley. After a morning hike to Horseshoe Bend, follow the dusty desert road to the neon-lit Strip of Las Vegas for two nights of non-stop sin. Did you know that this glitzy city is the brightest place visible From outer space? When walking its blinking streets, that won't come as a surprise. Party like a VIP with an optional limo experience, try your luck on the slot machines or see the sights of Venice, Paris and New York (in hotel form). Tick off two national parks on Days 3 and 1D with visits to Zion, famous For its red-and-white cliffs, and Bryce Canyon, known for its hoodoos (weather-eroded rock formations). The geological drama continues on Day 1 1 as you hike through the surreal landscape of Arches National Park. (4B, 3L, 2D)

DAYS 12-19 Glenwood Springs / Flaming Gorge Reservoir/Jackson / Yellowstone N.P. / Bozeman / Glacier N.P.

Another day, another state. Travel to Glenwood Springs, Colorado, where you can soak in its world-famous hot pools or hike nearby Hanging Lake. On Day 13, see how Flaming Gorge Reservoir got its name by watching the canyon walls glow red at sunset. Yeehaw! Pull on your cowboy boots and hit the saloon bars of Jackson Hole. Overnight here before continuing to Yellowstone National Park, home to bubbling mud pots, technicolour hot springs and 60% of the world's geysers. Montana marks the tour's halfway point. With over 20 glaciers, 2DO lakes and streams, and 740 miles of hiking trails. Glacier National Park is a nature lover's paradise. (7B, 8L, 5D)

DAYS 20-27 Coeur d'Alene / Seattle / Mount Rainier N.P. / Portland / Bend / Redwood N.P.

Hello Idaho! The scenic shores of Lake Coeur d'Alene will be your base for tonight. On Day 21 travel through the Evergreen State to Seattle where you'll have a full free day to ride to the top of the Space Needle, visit Pike Place Market or sip coffee in a Funky cafe (the original Starbucks opened here in 1971). Swap skyscrapers For snow-capped peaks as you journey to Mt. Rainier. Look familiar? That's because it's printed on every Washington licence plate. Next up, Portland. This hipster-cool city is known for its liberal ideas, farm-to-table restaurants and oFf-beat charm. Day 26 and its back to the countryside. Head to Redwood National Park via Crater Lake National Park and spend two nights surrounded by some of the world's tallest and most ancient trees. (7B, 4L, 3D)

DAYS 28-32 San Francisco /Lake Tahoe / Yosemite N.P.

Wind through California's famous wine region en route to San Francisco. Upon arrival, you'll be greeted by the sight of the city's most famous landmark, the Golden Gate Bridge. The next day is yours to explore, so why not check out Chinatown or rummage through vintage stores in the hippy Haight-Ashbury area? Go to Lake Tahoe on Day 3D. Straddling state lines, this idyllic spot sees crystal-clear waters backdropped by the Sierra Nevadas. From one scenic setting to the next, make for Yosemite National Park on Day 31. Hike or bike past giant sequoias, tumbling waterfalls and imposing granite Formations, keeping your eyes peeled for black bears, deer or coyotes. (5B, 3L, 2D)

DAYS 33-35 Santa Cruz / Morro Bay / Los Angeles

The final leg of the tour takes you to the coast. Cue cashing waves, charming seaside towns, golden beaches and even an elephant seal rookery. Cliff-hugging Highway 1 is arguably America's most beautiful drive. Follow it from free-spirited Santa Cruz all the way to LA, stopping in Morro Bay and Santa Barbara en route. Your trip ends on arrival in the City of Angels. (2B, L, 2D)

The indigenous Puyallup tribe believe that Mt. Rainier was once a powerful woman who asked to be reincarnated as a mountain so that she could continue to feed her children forever. And she's doing a good job of it, with a unique ecosystem that includes lakes, meadows, waterfalls, canyons and forests! Go hiking and camp just outside the park before continuing on to hipster paradise Portland. In Bend, check out some of its Famous breweries, then spend the following day among the tide pools, beach communities and gigantic coastal redwoods of Redwood National Park. On Day 21, drive through California's famous wine region and over the Golden Gate Bridge to San Francisco. (7B, 4L, 3D)

DAYS 23-28 Lake Tahoe / Yosemite N.P. / Santa Cruz / Morro Bay/Los Angeles

Leave the city behind once again, and make for idyllic Lake Tahoe, a jewel of the Sierra Nevadas. Known for its clear waters and sweeping mountain views, make the most of it with a free half day of optional hikes and lake activities. Day 24 brings a massive highlight in the shape of Yosemite National Park's dramatic cliff faces, before your final approach to LA brings you to the coastal city of Santa Cruz and a sunset over Morro Bay. HIGHLIGHTS

ARCHES NATIONAL PARK

More than 2,000 natural sandstone arches pepper the landscape.

ROUTE 66

Over 2,000 miles of tarmacked history, crossing eight states.

WELCOME TO FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

The ultimate selfie spot, it's marked the start of the Strip since 1959.

DAYS 1-3 Seattle / Montana / Yellowstone National Park

Setting off from Seattle - home to Boeing, Microsoft, Starbucks, Nirvana and Frasier - drive across Washington State and through Idaho's Bitterroot Range into Big Sky Country, Montana. For two days discover the wonders of Yellowstone, the world's oldest and most famous national park. Amongst the explosive geysers, gurgling mudpools and rushing waterfalls lives an abundance of wildlife, so keep your eyes peeled for roaming bison, bear, moose and elk.

DAYS 4-6 Grand Teton National Park / Jackson / Flaming Gorge

The unspoiled landscapes of Grand Teton National Park are next on the list. Jagged peaks rise from flat, green meadows against crisp, blue skies. Opt to do some white water rafting down the raging Snake River rapids in Jackson for some adrenalin-pumping fun! Pull up a bar stool and sink a shot or two of Red-Eye Whiskey at the Silver Dollar Saloon to top off your day. Day 6, say farewell to the mountains and hello to the red rocks of the desert Southwest. Wind past the Green River to the Flaming Gorge reservoir in Wyoming, named for the brilliant way the sun reflects off its red rocks.

DAYS 7-9 Arches National Park/Moab / Monument Valley

Spend the next few days exploring both the town of Moab and nearby Arches National Park. Take a sunset stroll to Delicate Arch, mountain bike on Moab's famous Slick Rock Trail, or hop in a Hummer for an exhilarating optional tour. If that's not enough, pay a visit to Dead Horse Point State Park for amazing canyon views. On Day 9, head to iconic Monument Valley. Loved by movie directors and sacred to the Navajo people, learn more by signing up to an included Navajo-guided 4WD tour of the area.

DAYS 10-14 Grand Canyon National Park/Las Vegas / Los Angeles

Whether it's watching the sunrise before walking down Bright Angel Trail to Plateau Point, spotting red-tailed hawks or California condors traverse the blue skies, or flying high above on an optional helicopter ride, the Grand Canyon is a natural wonder sure to leave you stunned. A neon mirage in the desert. Las Vegas is a city filled with parties, slot machines and hazy nights. The possibilities are endless here. Tour the casinos (no clocks means you can get lost in there for hours), catch a top-name cabaret show, ride a rollercoaster or go clubbing. Los Angeles (aka the City of Angels) is your last stop on your tour.

HIGHLIGHTS

GRAND CANYON

It needs no introduction. Spend a full day hiking the rim of the most iconic canyon of them all.

GLACIER NATIONAL PARK

Choose from over 1,000 km of hiking trails to explore some of its 20 glaciers and 200 lakes.

YELLOWSTONE

The world's first ever national park is also one of its most dramatic. Beware erratic geysers!

DAYS 1-5 Los Angeles / San Diego / Lake Havasu City / Grand Canyon

Get starry-eyed in the city where dreams are made and devastatingly broken, escaping early on Day 2 for the more laid-back San Diego. Travel along the Pacific coastline and pull up to the surfer-clad city, soaking up the rest of the sunshine on Mission Beach before hitting the pubs and clubs of the Gaslamp Quarter. The next day, a different kind of sand beckons in the deserts leading up to Joshua Tree National Park, where a short hike takes you through the park's iconic rock formations. The first countdown stops on Day 4 as you hit Route 66 and wait for the Grand Canyon to come into view. Spend the entire next day tracing the canyon rim. (3B, 2L, 3D)

DAYS 6-11 Monument Valley / Las Vegas / Zion N.P. / Bryce Canyon / Moab / Arches N.P.

As you drive along the southern rim of the canyon, stop for breakfast at the G for Good Native Grill food truck before living your Americana dream on a drive through the crimson barrenness of Monument Valley. Cue scene change, and you're knee-deep in Feathers, Shania Twain fans and Tina Turner drag acts, it can only be Vegas. Take a stroll along the Strip and opt for a VIP party experience that evening (in a limo, naturally). After a free day, it's back to nature with hikes and hoodos in Zion, Bryce Canyon and Arches national parks. (4B, 1L, 2D)

DAYS 12-16 Glenwood Springs / Flaming Gorge / Jackson / Yellowstone N.P.

Head on to Glenwood Springs and opt to go hiking, mountain biking or swimming in the world's largest hot springs pool. Wyoming calls on Day 13, welcoming you with a spectacular sunset at the fiery red canyon of Flaming Gorge as you prepare for the journey north to Jackson the following morning, your soon-to-be favourite spot if you have any hankering for line dancing and cowboy bars. Day 15 brings a double dose of national parks, with Grand Teton paving the way for the geysers, waterfalls and brash colours of Yellowstone. (5B, 5L, 3D)

DAYS 17-21 Bozeman / Glacier National Park / Coeur d'Alene / Seattle

Continue to the university town of Bozeman for an evening away from the wolves and bears of the rural and mountainous west, then get back to business as you travel through Montana to Glacier National Park. Hands down one of the most dramatic parks in the US, Glacier lives up to its name with over 20 of them sprawled out within its borders. Spend a day here on Day 19, then head west to the outdoor mecca of Coeur d'Alene. The trip comes to an end on arrival in Seattle on Day 21. (4B, 4L, 2D)

DAYS 1-2 San Francisco / Santa Rosa / Crater Lake National Park

San Francisco is a strong start for anyone looking to conquer the west coast. Explore the city on a driving tour, stepping out to walk the Golden Gate in the afternoon followed by a hike in Bodega Bay. The next day, enjoy a long drive through the wine lands of Sonoma and Napa to the Cascade mountain range. Your destination is Union Creek, located just outside Crater Lake National Park, with unreal views of the 4,000-metre tall Mt. Shasta.

DAYS 3-4 Bend

A morning hike along the Crater Lake Rim Trail kick starts your day. We're talking volcanic landscape on an epic scale: this is the collapsed volcano that created America's deepest lake. Continue on to Bend for a starlight canoe tour of one of the stunning cascade lakes, then opt to spend your free day on the coveted Bend ale trail - stampable beer passport included!

DAYS 5-7 Portland / Seattle

Call it what you want - City of Roses, Bridge City, or Beervana - Portland is pretty damn cool. Help "Keep Portland Weird" with a Brew Cycle tour, a great activity to check out some of Portland's best neighbourhoods and breweries. On Day 7, swing by Cannon Beach for an ale in the Pelican Brew pub, then pull up to Seattle.

HIGHLIGHTS

WAIKIKI SUNSET SAIL

Nothing quite beats golden hour out at sea, let alone in Hawaii!

KU ALU A RANCH DAYTRIP

From 'Jurassic Park' to 'SO First Oates', this is a Hollywood hot spot.

VOLCANOES NATIONAL PARK

Red hot lava flows and martian-like landscapes? Sounds lava-iy.

DAYS 1-5 Waikiki /Oahu /Kualoa Ranch /Kapa a

Where leis are the norm and party shirts are aplenty, Hawaii is nothing short of a wild ride in paradise! Touch down on the sandy shores of Waikiki and get settled in, then begin exploring the island on an included tour the next day. In the evening, set sail into the setting sun, and watch the skies showcase brilliant hues of orange, pink and purple. Kualoa Ranch Nature Reserve calls on Day 3! Wind through the lush green valleys of this popular Hollywood filming site and reminisce on the days when "Jurassic Park" was the scariest film you'd ever seen. Then, enjoy a full free day to make the most of the activities on this island such as hiking or surfing. One short flight later and you'll find yourself on the island of Kauai on Day 5. Transfer to the island's most charming town, Kapa'a, for a wander through the historic Old Town and a touch of quaint cafe hopping.

DAYS 5-10 Waimea Canyon / Kapa a / Kahului

Depart early on Day 6 for a day trip to Waimea Canyon, coined as the "Grand Canyon of the Pacific". Stretching a massive ten miles long and up to 3,600 feet deep, this canyon makes for the perfect photo op. On Day 7, join the locals and hop on a bus for a free day to explore Kauai's North Shore. Swim, shop, bodysurf or chill out, then on Day 8, catch a flight to Maui. The following two days will be brimming with a toad of free time so you can take advantage of the optional. Opt to snorkel, surf, whale watch or take the time out to top up your tan on the beach. You can also travel the picturesque Road to Hana (not for the faint-hearted or easily car sick) or take a sailing trip to the neighbouring island of Lanai. In the evening, give your hips a workout at a luau celebration. (D)

DAYS 11-15 Kihei / Hilo / Hawaii Volcanoes National Park / Hilo / Kailua-Kona

Fly to the island of Hawaii (also known as Big Island) and transfer to Hilo, where you'll have free time to frolick the following day. On Day 13, set off for the Hawaii Volcanoes National Park and discover the lava flows and alien landscapes on a full-day excursion. Making headway to Kailua-Kona, you'll pitstop at Pu'uhoonua o Honaunau National Historical Park. This fascinating national park is a sacred place that served as a refuge in ancient times for defeated warriors and those who violated the kapu (sacred laws). On your visit here, walk past temples and carved statues as you learn all about the ancient laws and rituals that shaped Hawaiian culture. The Aloha lifestyle sadly comes to an end on Day 15, but choose to stick around on your own accord if you just can't get enough of the luaus.

DAYS 1-2 Honolulu / North Shore / Honolulu

As you're starting in the birthplace of Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson, what better way to kick things off than with a movie tour in the Kaaawa Valley - a backdrop for over 50 Hollywood movies. Unleash your inner Yaaawr' in 'Jurassic Park' territory, then hop on a vintage school bus to look for Godzilla footprints. Spend Day 2 at leisure in Honolulu.

DAYS 3-4 Hawaii Volcanoes N.P.

A morning flight takes you to the Big Island For your venture into Volcanoes National Park, home to the one of the world's most active volcanoes. Expect craters, smoking grounds, old lava tubes and ancient petroglyphs, and spend your nights in cabins located in the park, surrounded by rainforest.

DAYS 5-6 Kailua-Kona Town

Drive to Kona For your next two nights. En route, learn about Hawaii's sacred laws and traditions (and the odd evil spirit) at Pu'uhoonua o Honaunau Historic Park then look out for green sea turtles at Punalu'u Black Sand Beach. In Kona, opt to join in a night manta ray snorkel, then spend a day at leisure.

DAYS 7-10 Maui

DAYS 1-3 Honolulu

Button up your best Hawaiian shirt as you arrive in Oahu, known as 'The Gathering Place'. We'd recommend doing these first three days without a car - parking spaces are hard to find in Waikiki - and check out some bike hire options instead. Transfer to your hotel in Waikiki Beach, then on Day 2, use your free time to explore. Opt to visit Diamond Head, take a trip to the Kahala residential area and travel to the North Shore to check out the best surf beaches.

DAYS 4-5 Kauai

Take a flight to Kauai, the oldest island in the Hawaiian chain, and pick up your car. Explore the tropical scenery of Garden Isle, visit Bali Hai and Hanalei Bay, and round it all off with a visit to the whopping Waimea Canyon.

DAYS 6-9 Maui

After dropping your car at the airport, board your next flight to Maui, the second-largest island in Hawaii. The most famous volcano in Maui also happens to be the largest dormant volcano in the world so be sure to squeeze a visit to Haleakala in the schedule! Visit the Haleakala Crater at sunrise or sunset for insta-worthy views and head to the Iao Valley for even more photo ops. Here, you will see the Iao Needle - a sharply-pointed lava pinnacle rising 1,200 feet above the valley's grounds. Then, for lunch or dinner during your stay, why not stop at Lahaina town? There's loads of restaurants serving up fresh seafood and local dishes. After a whirlwind adventure, prepare to wrap things up on Day 9.

WORK IN

Canada

Looking for a new place to run-to? Live and work in the Great White North for up to 24 months with the right visa and working programme. Here's how.

fr

WHAT IS IT?

Two programmes designed by our friends at BUNAC to get you living and working in Canada for up to 24 months. The Essentials programme takes care of the basics, while the Ultimate programme offers more guidance to secure you that perfect job. The clincher? Both give you support with the visa process, increasing your chances of getting your visa application accepted first time!

WHO CAN APPLY?

British citizens aged between 18 and 30 inclusive and Irish citizens between 18 and 35. Lucky ducks.

WHY SHOULD I APPLY THROUGH BUNAC?

IEC (International Experience Canada) visas are limited to around 5,000 British and 10,500 Irish citizens per year, and are notoriously difficult to get hold of. But with just a £95 deposit, you'll be guided through the process by BUNAC's expert team. As the previous sole issuer of the Canadian visa for 20 years, the BUNAC programme will put you in the best position to get your hands on an exclusive IEC visa, as well as the best working holiday package to go with it.

DAYS 1-6 New York City / Boston / Québec City / Montreal

Meet up in the Big Apple and head to Boston via New Haven. Home of the Red Sox, this sports-mad city is your base for the next two nights. Walk the well-marked Freedom Trail to get the lowdown on Boston's important role in American history, then visit the prestigious Harvard University. On Day 3, drive through Maine and cross the border into Canada to French-influenced Québec City, a little slice of old-world Europe in the middle of North America. Get to know this walled city's historic buildings, cobbled streets and Parisian-style eateries on a guided walk around its UNESCO-listed Old Town. The multicultural theme continues on Day 5 as you make for Montreal. Thanks to its French history and diverse population, you'll find great restaurants, museums and jazz bars. [6B. 2D]

DAYS 7-12 Toronto / Niagara Falls / Whistler / Kamloops

Today, travel through the Thousand Islands region to Toronto, Canada's largest city and another multicultural melting pot. Fun Fact: did you know that 130 languages and dialects can be heard in Toronto? See the CN Tower, Rogers Centre and the eclectic shops of Yonge Street on a city tour. Day 9 and it's time to go chasing waterfalls. Niagara Falls to be precise. A boat will take you to the thundering base, so make sure you've packed your waterproofs because you're in for a soaking! It's an early start on Day 10 as you travel to the alpine resort of Whistler via Vancouver. Here, optional outdoor activities include hiking, ziplining, kayaking and mountain biking. Day 12 takes you past the Lillooet Mountain Range as well as Duffy. Kamloops and the Seton lakes. [5B. 3D]

DAYS 13-20 Jasper National Park / Banff National Park / Vernon / Vancouver

Picnic in the shadow of Mt. Robson, the highest peak in the Canadian Rockies, and ride the rapids on an optional white water rafting trip before arriving in Jasper. On Day 14, Maligne Canyon and Maligne Lake provide scenic trails and impressive wildlife. Start Day 15 with a drive along the Icefields Parkway, passing mountains, lakes and waterfalls. Roll right onto the Athabasca Glacier in a custom-designed Ice Explorer vehicle, then stop for a photo with the turquoise-hued Lake Louise. With two nights in a chalet in Banff, you'll have plenty of time to enjoy the area's amazing scenery. It's a national park extravaganza on Day 17 as you cut through Yoho, Glacier and Mt. Revelstoke en route to Vernon. Your last stop is Vancouver. Journey through the Okanagan Valley - Canada's wine country - before taking in Gastown, Chinatown and the amazing totem poles of Stanley Park. On Day 19, enjoy an optional harbour cruise as a great way to say goodbye. Your trip ends on Day 20. [5B. 1. 2D]

DAYS 1-3 Vancouver / Whistler / Kamloops

Not many cities can balance big city living with the great outdoors, but Vancouver - with its skyscrapers, beaches., forests and mountains - does it perfectly. Meet your group here, then wind along the Sea-to-Sky Highway to Whistler, home of the 2010 Winter Olympics. On Day 2, it's your very own playground with optional activities like ziplining, mountain biking and white water rafting. If adventure sports don't float your boat., why not hike one of the many trails or meander the local art galleries? Photo opportunities of Canada's mountains and lakes are everywhere on the way to Kamloops on Day 3. The scenic drive takes you through the Lillooet Mountain Range, with fantastic views of the Lillooet., Duffy and Kamloops lakes. (2B, 2D)

DAYS 4-7 Jasper N.P. /Banff N.P.

The drive along the Yellowhead Highway takes you into the heart of the Rocky Mountains. Stop for a picnic at the base of Mt. Robson, then continue on to Jasper. On Day 5, visit Maligne Canyon; the deepest and longest limestone canyon in the Rockies, as well as the mirror-like Maligne Lake. Following the Columbia Icefield Parkway, roll right onto the Athabasca Glacier in a custom-designed Ice Explorer vehicle and snap a selfie with Peyto Lake. Yes, it really is that blue! You'll also see Lake Louise, overlooked by its chateau-style hotel, en route to your cosy chalet in Banff. There's loads to do on Day 7, but, as you're in cowboy country, horse riding should be at the top of the list. Neigh? How about a scenic helicopter tour? Round off the day with a fire-cooked meal. (2B, L, 0)

DAYS B-I 1 Yoho N.P. / Glacier N.P. / Mt. Revelstoke N.P. / Vernon / Vancouver

Today's travels take you through three national parks - Yoho, Glacier and Mt. Revelstoke. Along the way, see the famous Roger's Pass, Kicking Horse Valley and the Spiral Train Tunnel. Nestled in the heart of Canada's wine country, Vernon is your next stop. It's back to where you started on Day 9 as you journey through the Okanagan Valley to Vancouver. See Gastown, Chinatown and Lion's Gate Bridge or visit the totem poles of Canada's First Nations people in Stanley Park, a beautiful rainforest area right on the edge of downtown. Next, get a feel for the young spirit of the city while exploring its hip shops and cafes. Insider tip: for some of the best coffee in Vancouver, Pallet Coffee Roasters, Aubade and Moving Coffee are all big-hitters. Spend your last evening with the group on an optional dinner cruise around the harbour before heading out for a night on the town. Your Canadian adventure ends Day 11. (3B, D)

SEATTLE - SEATTLE

DAY 1 Seattle / Kamloops

Starting and Ending in Seattle, this week-long tour of Canada's national parks is full of glaciers, lakes, mountain trails and incredible photo opportunities. Head to Kamloops on Day 1, stopping for a picnic at Bridal Veil Falls en route. This waterfall tumbles 60 metres over a smooth rock face, creating a veil effect (hence the name).

DAYS 2-4 Banff National Park

Yoho National Park is up next. Home to looming peaks, glacial lakes and pretty meadows, it's easy to see why it's named after a Cree expression for awe and wonder. In the afternoon, make your way to Banff and Lake Louise. Hike the Plain of Six Glaciers or go canoeing. Day 4 takes you along the Icefields Parkway where you can opt for a helicopter flight or walk across the Athabasca Glacier.

DAYS 5-6 Clearwater / Whistler

Day 5 and: it's on to Jasper, the largest park in Canada. Boasting an abundance of wildlife and lakeside trails, you won't be stuck for things to see and do here. After a full day of outdoor activities, follow the Yellowhead Highway to Clearwater where you'll overnight. On Day 6, head to the snowy resort town of Whistler, home of the 2010 Winter Olympics. Here, you'll have a full day to enjoy the spectacular scenery.

DAY 7 Vancouver/Seattle

VANCOUVER - CALGARY

DAYS 1-2 Vancouver/Whistler

Spend your first day as you please, limber up with a little ice hockey or have a meander around Chinatown with your new travel squad. On Day 2, make headway towards the snowsports haven, Whistler. Make sure you hop on a snowmobile before dinner to get a real rush. (D)

DAYS 3-4 Whistler

Time to get stuck into what you came here for - skiing! Crash down the snow and get that adrenalin pumping through your veins. Just a beginner? Not to worry! There are slopes for all abilities. Still, if downhill isn't really your thing, there are also snowmobiles and ziplines to ride. Between ski sessions hit the spa for some R&R, sip on creamy hot chocolates and head off on bar crawls to blow off steam in the evening. (B, D)

DAYS 5-9 Banff/Calgary

Hop on a flight to Calgary and transfer to Banff, known for its incredible scenery and home to plenty of snow. Banff is a pretty jaw-dropping mountain destination with hassle-free access to beautiful wilderness areas, outdoor adventures and rich in history and culture. With three resorts to choose from - Mt. Norquay, Lake Louise or Sunshine - Banff is the perfect place to test out your skiing or snowboarding prowess. Spend the next couple of days dog sledding, mountain hiking, soaking in hot springs... this place has it all. On Day 9, take a gondola ride up Sulphur Mountain. If you start to smell eggs, you know a warm soak isn't far! Before you depart, it's the perfect end to an amazing trip. (4B, D)

WINNIPEG - WINNIPEG

DAYS 1 -2 Winnipeg / Churchill

Kick off in Winnipeg with opportunities to visit the Manitoba Legislative Building, the historical Exchange District., the French-speaking community of St. Boniface and the Forks. Your morning flight on Day 2 whisks you to Churchill for exploration of Cape Merry as well as Manitoba's Conservation Polar Bear Holding Facility. (B)

DAY 3 Churchill

Here comes your very first encounter with friendly beluga whales on an awesome three-hour boat tour to learn about these so-called Canaries of the Sea. Fun fact: These cuties can swim backward and the bump on their head is called a 'melon/ Next, you're off on a thrilling dog carting excursion through the boreal forest. (B)

DAY 4 Churchill

Hop aboard the Zodiac boat tour, letting you get up close to beluga whales. Even though those sweet little bundles of blubber have teeth, they don't use them - they prefer to swallow their food (aka prey) whole. (B)

DAYS 5-6 Churchill

Your last full day is all about the Tundra Buggy in the Churchill Wildlife Management Area. Keep your eyes wide open for hares, summer polar bears and! Arctic foxes before flying back to Winnipeg where your tour ends. Did you know this city is the curling capital of Canada? Feel free to stick around and try your hand at this off-beat winter sport before you depart. (B, I]

DAY 1 Winnipeg

Start in Winnipeg, home to the futuristic-looking Canadian Museum of Human Rights. It's well worth a visit as the rotating exhibitions on international history are fantastic. The Manitoba Legislative Building and the scenic Leo Mol Sculpture Garden beckon you as well. Hungry? This city also has an enviable dining scene crying out to be explored - get started at the Forks.

DAY 2 Churchill

Your Churchill adventure starts today as you fly north to the land of the polar bear. Start with a tour of the area and visit the Conservation Polar Bear Holding Facility and the Itsanitaq Museum, showcasing a collection of Inuit carvings. (B)

DAYS 3-4 Churchill

You're treated to two back-to-back days of Tundra Buggy excursions in the Churchill Wildlife Management Area, where polar bears await the freezing of Hudson Bay. Once it freezes, they'll head north across the ice to hunt seals. When you see the size of these Fearsome creatures, you might just think its a little crazy that people live in the towns nearby. (2B, 2L, D)

DAY 5 Winnipeg

Return to Winnipeg this evening and enjoy one more evening in the city before your trip comes to an end on Day 5. Before heading home, opt to walk along the river or keep an eye out for the Northern Lights.

ROUTE
PORT MCNEILL - PORT MCNEILL

SMALL GROUP ADVENTURE

Whale, whale, whale, what have we got here? Orcas, bald eagles, porpoises, and sea lions! Keeping a safe distance (if you can help it), kayak right up to these incredible creatures in the wildlife haven of northern Vancouver Island. Perfect your paddling technique over a number of excursions, as your guides use hydrophones to let you hear the grumbles of the orcas underwater. Afterwards, kayak to Telegraph Cove and visit the whale museum to get loaded with information about the wildlife you've seen.
